Divine Mercy Sunday Northwest 5 Family of Parishes

The Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter which this year is April 7, 2024. Jesus has given promises to this feast as He said,

"I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to Confession, receive Holy Communion, pray the Chaplet while venerating the image of the Divine Mercy, shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the Divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet."

JOIN US AT ST. DENIS SUNDAY, APRIL 7

1:30 pm
Confessions (multiple priests)

2:00 pm
Devotion to the Divine Mercy w/ Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, readings from St. Faustina's diary, prayers, and singing God's praises

3:00 pm
Chaplet of Divine Mercy while venerating the Divine Mercy image

Jesus, I Trust in You

If you make a good confession anytime 20 days prior or 20 days after Divine Mercy Sunday, for all of these, you can receive a plenary indulgence

Happy Easter!

CCD Upcoming:

- April 3 2nd Grade Jesus night
- April 24 First Communion Practice
- April 28 First Communion Mass at 11:00am

Nine-Month Novena
March 12 to December 12, 2024
to be prayed daily, for 9 months

O Virgin Mother of God, we fly to your protection and beg your intercession against the darkness and sin which ever more envelop the world and menace the Church. Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, gave you to us as our mother as He died on the Cross for our salvation. So too, in 1531, when darkness and sin beset us, He sent you, as Our Lady of Guadalupe, on Tepeyac to lead us to Him who alone is our light and our salvation.

Through your apparitions on Tepeyac and your abiding presence with us on the miraculous mantle of your messenger, Saint Juan Diego, millions of souls converted to faith in your Divine Son. Through this novena and our consecration to you, we humbly implore your intercession for our daily conversion of life to Him and the conversion of millions more who do not yet believe in Him. In our homes and in our nation, lead us to Him who alone wins the victory over sin and darkness in us and in the world.

Unite our hearts to your Immaculate Heart so that they may find their true and lasting home in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Ever guide us along the pilgrimage of life to our eternal home with Him. So may our hearts, one with yours, always trust in God's promise of salvation, in His never-failing mercy toward all who turn to Him with a humble and contrite heart. Through this novena and our consecration to you, O Virgin of Guadalupe, lead all souls in America and throughout the world to your Divine Son in Whose name we pray. Amen

“No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation . . . The baptismal seal enables and commits Christians to serve God by vital participation in the holy liturgy of the Church and to exercise their baptismal priesthood by the witness of holy lives and practical charity”
(CCC, 1272 and 1273)

Baptism Preparation Class

Your baby's Baptism will: 1) forgive his/her original sin (and all sins committed before Baptism), 2) make your baby a new creature, 3) be a newly adopted child of God, 4) share in the royal priesthood of Christ [1 Peter 2:9], and 5) leave an indelible spiritual mark (or character) of belonging to Christ on your baby's soul.

What a gift from God!

Presenting a child for Baptism is a serious obligation and requires a faith commitment on the part of the parents as active Catholics as well as the Godparents.

To help better understand Baptism and the importance of this obligation, parents are asked to attend a Baptism Preparation Class before the Baptism of their first child. Classes are the 2nd Sunday of the month after 11:00 a.m. Mass. Please call the parish office 937-526-4945 to register.

The next class will be Sunday, April 14, at 12:15 p.m.

Youth Ministry

Easter Sunday, March 31, 2024

From the Deacon's Desk Reflection on Today's Gospel Reading

"Easter is the Solemnity of Solemnities, the center and climax of the Church year. All the mysteries that we have commemorated from Advent until now have pointed toward Easter; all that we shall yet celebrate in the weeks that follow has its foundation in the mystery of Easter, and receives its meaning and importance from this mystery." – Benedict Baur, OSB, The Light of the World

In the very center of the Mass, the great prayer of thanksgiving, from the first words of the Preface, expresses the unrivaled motive for this joy: if it is right to praise You, Lord, at all times, how much more so should we not glorify You on this day when Christ our Passover was sacrificed, for He is the true Lamb who takes away the sins of the world, who by His Death destroyed our death and by His Resurrection restored our life. Easter means Redemption obtained – sin destroyed, death overcome, divine life brought back to us, the Resurrection of our body which is promised immortality. With such a certitude, we should banish any trace of sadness.

Haec dies quam fecit Dominus: "This is the day which the Lord has made." Throughout the Octave of Easter, we shall sing of the indescribable joy which throws open eternity to us. Every Sunday will furnish a reminder of it, and from Sunday to Sunday, from year to year, the Easters of this earth will lead us to that blessed day on which Christ has promised that He will come again with glory to take us with Him into the kingdom of His Father.
