PRIEST, PROPHET
BAPTIZED
& KING

WELCOME TO OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES
APRIL 14, 2024

AT HOLY FAMILY

Lennox Ann Fischer
Daughter of John & Cori (Lawrence) Fischer

The baptized serve as:

1. Priests through their sacrificial efforts to bring people to God;
2. Prophets through their witness to the truth in word and deed; and
3. Kings in their efforts to lead others—again through word and deed—to use their talents to advance the Kingdom of God

“No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation . . . The baptismal seal enables and commits Christians to serve God by vital participation in the holy liturgy of the Church and to exercise their baptismal priesthood by the witness of holy lives and practical charity”
(CCC, 1272 and 1273)

Baptism Preparation Class

Your baby's Baptism will: 1) forgive his/her original sin (and all sins committed before Baptism), 2) make your baby a new creature, 3) be a newly adopted child of God, 4) share in the royal priesthood of Christ [1 Peter 2:9], and 5) leave an indelible spiritual mark (or character) of belonging to Christ on your baby's soul.

What a gift from God!

Presenting a child for Baptism is a serious obligation and requires a faith commitment on the part of the parents as active Catholics as well as the Godparents.

To help better understand Baptism and the importance of this obligation, parents are asked to attend a Baptism Preparation Class before the Baptism of their first child. Classes are the 2nd Sunday of the month after 11:00 a.m. Mass. Please call the parish office 937-526-4945 to register.

The next class will be Sunday, May 12, at 12:15 p.m.

WORLD DAY
of PRAYER
for
VOCATIONS

Diocese of Shreveport

"I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD WHO LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE FOR THE SHEEP." ~JOHN 10:11

Archdiocese of Oklahoma City

Above: Last year, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City led more than a thousand faithful Catholics in a two-mile Eucharistic Procession—one of the longest in the country.

Masthead photo: Fr. Peter Mangum of the Diocese of Shreveport celebrates atop a climbing wall during a vocations summer camp. Beside him is Fr. Kelby Tingle, who attended the diocese's "Mission Possible" camp as a teen and is about to celebrate a much bigger achievement—his first year of priesthood.

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS TO FOCUS ON VOCATIONS

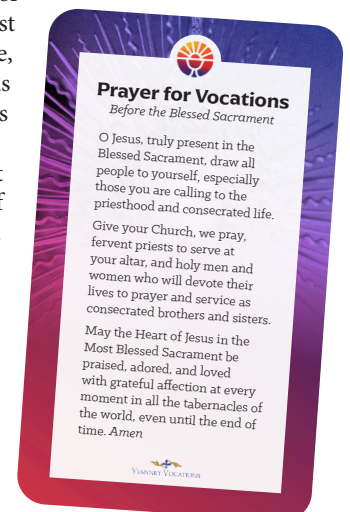

In just three months, tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the nation's first Eucharistic Congress in more than eight decades. While the main focus is clear—to adore Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament—participants will also notice a heavy emphasis on vocations.

Religious communities from across the country will be attending, many underwritten by Serra International, which is organizing a large area in the convention hall that will be teeming with sisters and brothers. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an entire section to showcase diocesan priesthood, with a small army of priests on hand to talk with young men.

Also in attendance will be hundreds of seminarians, many of whom will have just completed the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, an ambitious project that will see thousands marching toward Indiana along different routes totalling 6,500 miles.

The connection between the Eucharist and vocations is clear: Three-quarters of recently ordained priests regularly participated in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary. And at Catholic youth events, even those offering sports and high-energy activities, teen participants still rank one "activity" as their favorite: Adoration.

As the Church prepares for this historic event, let's ask our Eucharistic Lord for an outpouring of vocations!

Prayer for Vocations Before the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament, draw all people to yourself, especially those you are calling to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Give your Church, we pray, fervent priests to serve at your altar, and holy men and women who will devote their lives to prayer and service as consecrated brothers and sisters.

May the Heart of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament be praised, adored, and loved with grateful affection at every moment in all the tabernacles of the world, even until the end of time. Amen

VIANNY VOCATIONS

IDEAS FOR ACTION

HOLY FATHER: DO THESE FOUR THINGS

In a papal message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis used the term “con-vocation” to explain that a vocation is not an isolated “me-and-God” experience. Instead, young people hear God’s call within a real Church community. He offered four concrete ways to help youth discover their vocations, emphasizing these things should be done together:

1. Co-teach with a catechist
2. Visit a convent or monastery
3. Assist missionaries
4. Spend time with parish priests

Note that none of these involve phones or social media. How can you organize real-life activities for youth in your parish?

SERRA CELEBRATES 100 MONTHS
THE GLOBAL ROSARY
FOR VOCATIONS

For 100 months, Catholics from around the world have joined a massive video/phone call during which they pray the rosary to intercede for vocations. Created by Tim O’Neill in 2015, the Global Rosary brings together Serra Clubs comprised of lay people dedicated to promoting priesthood and consecrated life. “In its simplicity it becomes quite a feat,” said Tim. “It gives a chance for people worldwide to visit beforehand and after... The most powerful way we Serrans connect is through prayer.”

THE VOCATION OF MARRIAGE
SOLVING DATING DILEMMAS

The stats on Catholic marriages are alarming: for every ten weddings in 1970, today there are only two. Percentage-wise, that’s a steeper decline than priestly ordinations.

For young Catholics looking for love, the Catholic dating scene is not just frustrating, it’s downright discouraging. That was certainly the experience of Rachel Hoover Canto, whose new book on dating, Pretty Good Catholic, offers counter-cultural advice for how to date well, stay chaste, and find a good Catholic spouse.

After Rachel graduated from college, she watched her friends get married while she suffered through some tough breakups. That got her thinking deeply about the whole Catholic dating situation, which has its own set of quirks and challenges. Trying to be proactive, she started a Catholic singles group, interviewed people from CatholicMatch, and consulted dating experts. The result is Pretty Good Catholic, which serves as a how-to guide for even the most discouraged single man or woman.

Cristina Pineda, an LA-based celebrity matchmaker who also happens to be a faithful Catholic, offered high praise: “I wish I had this book when I was single,” she said,

STORYBOOK ENDING

While writing Pretty Good Catholic, Rachel Canto took her own advice and found the love of her life. She and her new husband live in Nashville.

One Hail Mary

Sometimes it’s the simple things! A traditional practice that’s making a comeback is helping kids pray for their future vocations by saying one Hail Mary each night: “Mother Mary, as you said yes to the angel Gabriel, help me say yes to God’s call. Hail Mary, full of grace...”

Reflection on Today's Gospel Reading

Lord, all praise and honor we rightly offer You! We genuinely look for You, but we sometimes find ourselves searching and hungry for bread that perishes. Forgive us, Lord! Please, show us that you are the living bread we desire.

Jesus used food as a “hook” to capture the crowd’s attention when He multiplied the loaves and fish. While we do not multiply bread or fish to feed people, we can imitate Jesus by using everyday events to invite people to discover and grow in a relationship with God. Each day, we have opportunities to cast a “hook” into the stream of people’s lives to share the love of Jesus with them. Our words, as well as our actions, can lift their minds, at least momentarily, to “things that are above,” bringing them into contact with their greatest good, Our Lord (Colossians 3:2).

Many people sought Jesus for physical food or healing. Jesus challenged them, saying, “Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life.” We, too, can become earthbound, distracted by our temporal world of work and home, and unaware of the connectedness of the temporal and eternal realms when, in fact, everything we possess, any talent we have received, belongs to the Lord, and should rightly be used to reach out to share Jesus with others, either directly or indirectly. We are invited today, in this Gospel, to sit with these thoughts and ask ourselves, “How am I living each day with an eye on eternity, and sharing my perspective with those I’m called to reach?”

“This is the work of God, that you believe in the one He sent.” A quick peek into a thesaurus reveals words that may intensify what Jesus means when He says “believe” – words like faith, trust, confidence, certainty, acceptance, reliance, conviction, and hope. Do these words reflect the depth of our belief and commitment to Jesus? We don’t earn faith – it’s a gift from God – but we do need to open our hearts, empty them of superfluous concerns, pray for faith, and be ready to receive the answer to our prayer.

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd carries a staff with a hook which He uses to direct His sheep guiding them to stay on the path. When we look to Him the Good Shepherd He keeps us on the path so that we are able to lead others to Him.

Jesus, I do believe; help my unbelief! Abba, grow my heart’s longing for You today as I pray over the ways I hunger for You, the ways I keep my gaze fixed on eternity, and the ways I “do the work of God.” Increase my belief in the one you sent so that I might become a fisher of men. Lord, today, by Your grace, I ask you to give me opportunities to build the kingdom by my words and actions and become an instrument in the evangelization of others.
